§ 1 General Regulations

This Price List is an integral part of the Austrian National Library's regulations.

All prices are given in euros and include VAT at the prevailing rate of 10%.

For all reproduction services, with the exception of reproductions of microforms, a handling fee of € 1.00 per item will be charged.

When ordering images from the Austrian National Library's Picture Archive in writing or by e-mail, a general processing fee of € 40.00 per hour or part of an hour may, if necessary, be charged.

For the despatch of reproductions and Austrian National Library publications, postal charges (depending on weight) and registered mail charges according to the mail rates will be invoiced.

Where payment is made by bank-transfer, without charges to the Austrian National Library, € 7.27 can be deducted from European countries, and from overseas countries, € 10.90.

(A) Reproductions of originals

§ 2 Reproductions made from originals in the Austrian National Library may be employed exclusively for personal (private) use (under §42 Copyright Act). Additional fees must be paid for any usage over and above this, such as publications, exhibitions, etc. (see Section (B)).

(B) Charges for the use of materials held by the Austrian National Library for purposes of publication

- § 9 The fee charged for publications based on originals provided by the Austrian National Library depends on the nature of the original in question, as well as on the type of publication.
- § 10 In each case full reference must be made to the source of all materials from the Austrian National Library used for publications and exhibitions.
- § 11 In addition to the charges listed below, two voucher copies (one in the case of domestic publications) of each publication containing reproductions of materials from the Austrian National Library must generally be provided free of charge.

§ 12 Charges for the hiring of Ektachromes from the Austrian National Library

The Austrian National Library either hires out colour transparencies (so-called Ektachromes) or produces reproducible (high-resolution) scans for the production of colour reproductions.

The cost of producing Ektachrome duplicates from the master Ektachrome must be borne by the user. If a master Ektachrome must be made, the cost of its production must also be borne by the user (for prices and despatch costs, see section (A) § 5).

Ektachromes are loaned out for a period of three months. Renewals must be made in writing before the end of the loan period. Loans will be renewed provided there are no reservations for the Ektachromes.

Charges are made up of a hire charge for the Ektachromes or a processing fee for scans (see Section (A) § 8) plus a publication fee.

Hire charge for Ektachromes (duplicates)
Hire charge for three months excluding despatch costs	72.70
Extension, per month	36.30
Exceeding the loan period, per week	14.50
Replacement charge in the event of loss of or damage to the Ektachrome
If the Ektachrome can be replaced	145.40
If the Ektachrome cannot be replaced	726.70

§ 13 Use of objects from the Austrian National Library for facsimiles

The use of objects from the Austrian National Library for facsimile editions requires a written contract and the explicit approval of the management.

§ 14 Charges for the use of materials (B&W and colour) from the Austrian National Library for publication in scientific publications.

(The cost of producing reproductions is not included in the prices listed below and will be charged separately; see Section (A)).
